

NOMINATION FORM

The Racine County Sports Hall of Fame considers eligible any individual, living or dead, a current or former Racine County resident, who has made a significant contribution or has compiled a record of achievement in sports, either as a player, coach, manager, administrator, owner, educator, promoter or contributor, and by such contribution has benefited sports in Racine County or elsewhere. Individuals should be retired from participation in their area of nomination for a minimum of five years. Nominations are accepted annually. Nominations received by January 31 will be considered for induction at the annual ceremony the following October. The Racine County Sports Hall of Fame Selection Committee determines the final slate of nominees.

Please provide accurate contact information and provide as much detail as possible when answering the questions. Include additional sheets if necessary. Incomplete nominations will not be accepted. Please email rcsports@racineheritagemuseum.org or call Christopher Paulson at 262-636-3926 with any questions about the Nomination Form.
